Senate Resolution 134

Senator Bernal offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The League of United Latin American Citizens, in this year Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Seven, A.D., is observing its Thirty-eighth Anniversary; and

Whereas, LULAC was founded on February 17, 1929, at Corpus Christi, Texas, for the purpose of promoting good citizenship and services to the United States of America, and to further understanding between citizens of Mexican descent and their fellow Americans; and

Whereas, LULAC believes in the democratic principle of individual political and religious freedom, in the right of equality for social and economic opportunity, and in the cooperative endeavor toward the development of an American society wherein the cultural resources and integrity of every individual and group constitute basic assets of the American way of life; and

Whereas, LULAC considers it the obligation as well as the privilege of its members to uphold and defend the rights and duties vested in every American citizen; and

Whereas, LULAC fosters in its members the desire to courageously resist un-American tendencies that deprive American citizens of their just rights in educational institutions, economic pursuits, and in social and civic activities; and

Whereas, Throughout the past thirty-eight years, LULAC has emphasized the development of character, training in citizenship and the promotion of the ideas and ideals of American way of life through education; and

Whereas, The week of February 12 to 18 is being celebrated as NATIONAL LULAC WEEK, and it is appropriate that the Senate of the Sixtieth Legislature commend LULAC and its members for their patriotic endeavor and achievement on this occasion; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate of the State of Texas extend good wishes to the League of United Latin American Citizens upon the celebration of the organization's Thirty-eighth Anniversary; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution under the Seal of the Senate be prepared for Alfred Hernandez of Houston, National President of LULAC, as an expression of appreciation from this Body.

BERNAL BERRY

The resolution was read and was adopted.

Senate Resolution 135

Senator Hardeman offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The passing of a half century will witness the celebration of the Golden Wedding Anniversary of Judge and Mrs. Clyde E. Smith of Woodville, their residence, which they have shared with Austin, since Judge Smith was appointed to the State Supreme Court in 1950 and to which he has been returned with each election; and

Whereas, Judge and Mrs. Smith, she the former Eupha Wisenbaker of Travis County, were married on February 15, 1917. They met when Mrs. Smith was a school teacher and Judge Smith was a law student in the office of the late Judge R. A. Shivers, father of former Governor Allan Shivers, and was admitted to the Bar in 1919; and

Whereas, Judge Smith held a number of public offices prior to his appointment to the Supreme Court by former Governor Allan Shivers. Throughout his public career, he and Mrs. Smith have been active in church and civic affairs of both Woodville and Austin, being affiliated with the First Baptist Church in Austin. Judge Smith is a member of the Capital Area Council and National Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He was a member of the Executive Board of the Trinity-Neches Council and served as President of the Tyler County Red Cross and is a past President of the Woodville Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Smith is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Order of the Eastern Star in which organizations she has filled various offices and discharged the duties thereof with grace and effectiveness; and

Whereas, Four children were born to this union—three of whom survive; namely, Clyde E. Smith, Jr., Joe Emmett Smith and Audrey Ruth Smith, and will join their parents in their eventful observance. A son, Gerald Smith, died in Germany in 1953. Judge and Mrs. Smith are also blessed with thirteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, none of whom is reputed to be spoiled by doting grandparents; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the Senate of Texas to join with their many friends in extending congratulations and good wishes to Judge and Mrs. Smith on the observance of this happy milestone in their years together; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate of Texas, That it does hereby extend its sincere congratulations to Judge and Mrs. Smith in the celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, and wish for them many more years of wedded bliss together, and that copies of this Resolution be sent to Judge and Mrs. Smith under the Seal of the Senate by the Secretary of the Senate.

Signed—Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith; Bates, Bernal, Berry, Brooks, Christie, Cole, Creighton, Grover, Hazlewood, Herring, Hightower, Jordan, Kennard, Moore, Parkhouse, Patman, Ratliff, Schwartz, Wade, Watson.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Hardeman and by unanimous consent the names of the Lieutenant Governor and all Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

The resolution was then adopted by the Senate.

Senate Resolution 132

Senator Herring offered the following resolution:

Whereas, In view of the presence in Texas of the Most Honorable and Worthy Maitland Mackie, Commander of the Order of the British Empire; Bachelor of Science (Agriculture) in the University of Aberdeen; Justice of the Peace, Westertown, Rothienorman; County Councillor for the Electoral Division of Fyvie South in the County of Aberdeen; Vice-Convenor of the Council of the County of Aberdeen; and Chairman of the Education Committee of the Council of the County of Aberdeen; and

Whereas, Commander Mackie was born in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, on February 16, 1912, the son of Dr. Maitland Mackie, L.L.D., O.B.E., and has two brothers; John Mackie, a Member of Parliament and Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Agriculture; and George Mackie, Member of Parliament and Chairman of the Scottish Liberal Party; and

Whereas, Commander Mackie first visited the United States in 1950 as a speaker for the British Information

Services; and in 1963, married Mrs. Fred Turner from Weslaco and Georgetown, and who is owner of the 4-T Ranches; and

Whereas, Commander Mackie, in addition to his farming interests, has served as a Member of the Agricultural Advisory Committee to the Secretary of State for Scotland; Chairman of Aberdeen and District Milk Marketing Board, an area which produces 23 to 24 million gallons of milk per year; Member of the Advisory Committee on Agricultural Broadcasting; Chairman of the Scottish Farm Buildings Research Committee; Member of the University Grants Committee for Agriculture; and was a Founding Member of the British Charolais Association; and

Whereas, The State of Texas, in grateful appreciation to the people of Scotland for their contribution to the history and growth of this great State, hereby recognizes the fact that the skilled stone masons from Aberdeen, Scotland, were responsible for fashioning the granite used in the construction of the State Capitol Building; that, as a result of the great number of Scots who moved to Texas from the Eastern States in the early 19th Century, Scottish names appear in Texas history and geography, and in such county names as Anderson, Hamilton, McLennan, Mitchell, Cameron and McCulloch; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate of the State of Texas, That the Honorable Maitland Mackie of Aberdeen, Scotland, be extended a most hearty welcome to this State and that he be honored for his outstanding contributions to agriculture and to the cause of International Understanding; and that he be cordially invited to address the Senate on February 16, 1967.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

Senator Herring escorted Mr. Mackie to the President's Rostrum.

The President presented Senator Herring and he introduced Commander Mackie to the Senate.

Commander Mackie addressed the Senate, expressing appreciation for the honor of addressing the Senate and for the hospitality shown him.

At the conclusion of the address by Mr. Mackie, Senator Herring presented the other guests of the party, Mrs. Mackie, Jan and Andy Williams and Harry Gordon, President of Scottish Society of Texas from Austin.

The President laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to engrossment:

S. B. No. 18, A bill to be entitled "An Act exempting veterans of the Southeast Asia military action from payment of tuition and fees at state supported universities and colleges; amending Section 1, Chapter 6, Acts of the 43rd Legislature 1st Called Session, 1933; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Brooks offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend S. B. No. 18 by striking all below the enacting clause and substituting the following:

"Section 1. Chapter 6, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1933, as last amended by Section 1, Chapter 55, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953 (Article 2654b-1, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"Section 5a. All the provisions, conditions, and benefits of Section 1 shall apply to all persons who prove by demonstration of their armed services record that they have served outside the continental limits of the United States in any branch of the United States armed services, at any time during the armed conflict that has and does now exist between the United States armed forces in opposition to those forces fighting in behalf of North Viet Nam."

"Section 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

The amendment was read and was adopted.
